War Memorial resurrected

Works to Lewannick War memorial are all but complete and there will be a re-dedication service on Remembrance Sunday.

Don't forget the newsletter!

Please send details of any events you are involved in or know about. The newsletter goes out to nearly 450 homes in the Parish and is read by 1000 people or more. All advertising for events, private sales and local business within the Parish is free (and will be included subject to space available). We will also publish any articles relating to the history of, or life in, the Parish. We have a reciprocal arrangement with North Hill to publish details of events, so news of your event could reach even more people., but only if you tell us about it

If you have a photo relating in any way to the parish and would like to see it published, please send a copy. We promise to return it.

Contributions sent by email are very welcome as it saves a lot of two finger typing! Please send to david@lewannick.info. Other contact details are at the bottom of the back page. And PLEASE remember to send on or preferably BEFORE the deadline. This month it's Sunday 26th October.

PARISH COUNCIL

Lewannick Parish Council held their monthly meeting at Lewannick Village Hall on Thursday 18 September at 8pm. The playground at Lewannick was discussed and it was agreed that we would go ahead with the necessary repairs which amount to almost £1,000. This will include the renewal of a fence and a number of repairs to the apparatus as instructed by our insurers. We also went out to tender for a village seat at Polyphant. It was agreed at our meeting that as no-one applied for the tender that we would carry out the installation of a seat ourselves and the works to this will also be done soon. We have received a number of highly favourable comments with regard to the War Memorial which is now almost complete. We have sent an invitation to Lewannick Primary School in order that we can incorporate some bulb planting around the Memorial. There will be a re-dedication service on Remembrance Sunday.

Planning applications which were supported included:- Erection of lean-to extension, Mount Pleasant, Medrow, Mr Y and Mrs J Potter;

Erection of single storey extension, Medrow Bungalow, Mr T Ellis, Erection of conservatory to south elevation, Tinney Hall Cottage, Lewannick Mr M T Sobey and erection of first floor extension to provide additional bedroom Tremarvey Barn, Trenhorne, Congdon Shop, Mr N Davey. For information Mr and Mrs R Dinnis, Laurel Cottage erection of extension to dwelling, has been approved. Cheques passed for payment:-

Audit Commission £141.00, BJV (cleaning bus shelter) £22.00, Copytech £60 (newsletter), P J Badge £616.00 (maintenance of grass) and David J Gynn £2,843.35 final payment War Memorial. Residents who have written to us regarding the heavy lorries using the road through Lewannick and the implementation of a weight restriction through the village to encourage non-essential heavy traffic to use the B3257 have been forwarded to Highways who have informed us that there is nothing that they can do to prevent traffic going through the village at present. However, we have also been writing to Devon & Cornwall Constabulary and they have now written back apologising for the delay in responding to us but following relevant training next week (week commencing 22 September) WPC Campbell will be addressing our concerns personally over the coming months by monitoring the traffic flow and using the speed detection equipment available to them. Copies of letters from residents within the parish have also been forwarded to WPC Campbell. We thank all those who have written to us. Litter and dog faeces are a constant concern. We have received complaints from a resident in Trevadlock who states that dog owners are picking up faeces, bagging it and then throwing it over the hedge into neighbouring fields which is extremely unpleasant and moreover dangerous to livestock and working machinery. The Dog Warden has been informed.

Finally may we remind farm owners who have hedges that face the Highway to please be aware that the narrow lanes do need cutting back as they are causing a hazard.

Our next meeting will be held at Polyphant on Thursday 16 October commencing 8pm.

Time to make wine

Elderberries will soon be at their peak and Elderberry wine is one of the easiest and most palatable wines to make. Elder has health-giving properties and the wine, although red, has none of the tannin and red grape trace elements which some people blame for headaches.

I strongly recommend that you use a 5 gallon plastic fermenting cask. You will also need a 5 gallon plastic bin. These are available from specialist winemaking shops or the smallholders supply shop in Launceston. With these you should be able to make a batch of 30 bottles of extremely drinkable wine!

The key to successful winemaking is to prevent bacterial infection by sterilizing everything that comes into contact with the wine with bleach and boiling water, and then to rinse well with more boiling water.

You need 4 lbs of Elderberries per gallon. If you use a 5 gallon bin that would be about three quarters full. Don't bother to remove berries from stalks. Boil water in kettles and pans and pour over the berries until covered. Allow to stand for a day then pound with a piece of sterilized wood to burst all the berries. Stand for another day then, using a gravity strainer and large funnel, strain into the fermenting cask. Take some of the strained juice and using a large pan gently warm and add 2lbs sugar per gallon (2½lbs for a sweeter wine). Stir until dissolved then pour back into the fermenting cask. Add yeast nutrient as recommended on the container and the juice of 1 lemon per gallon. Top up until nearly full with boiled water. When the temperature is blood heat or less add a sachet of wine yeast (high alcohol tolerance is best!). Allow to ferment in a warm place for at least 2 weeks. Use a fermentation lock to prevent bacteria entering. When fermentation ceases seal with cap or clingfilm. Bottle using sterilized bottles after 6 months using a siphon which should leave all sediment in the bottom of the fermenting cask. Leave for at least 3 more months before drinking and try to leave at least a few bottles to age for 2 to 5 years. David
